

Welcome to 3rd Grade

Mr. Wileman and Mrs. Archey

You should know certain math skills upon entering 3rd grade. Being able to add and subtract the numbers 0-20 by memory will make an everlasting difference in your education. Please take time over the summer to practice them. Read, read, read and write, write, write.

Grade 3 Supply List

Rolling Backpack

8 folders – No plastic folders (Subject labels will be provided for you) Please do not purchase a 3-ring binder

2 Pencils / supply boxes (no larger than 8"); One box for daily supplies and one box for coloring

12 inch flexi ruler with inches and centimeters (Write your name on the back)

Endless supply of pencils

Endless supply of blue pens

Box of crayons (16 count at most)

Colored pencils

Markers for coloring (8 count at most)

Glue stick

Black Sharpie permanent marker (Put initials / name on as many items as possible)

2 highlighters

2 black dry erase markers

Old sock to be used as an eraser

Small scissors

Loose-leaf notebook paper (wide ruled)

2 Spiral notebooks (wide ruled)

Flashcards for addition, subtraction, division, multiplication – up to 12s

Assignment notebook (One will be provided for you.)

2 boxes of tissue for the classroom

2 boxes of disinfecting wipes for the classroom

5 large stretchy or homemade book covers (No tacky book covers)

Do not attach any special tags or trinkets to your backpack.

Textbooks Used in 3rd Grade

Sadlier Math: ISBN 978-1-4217-9003-9

Wonders Literature Anthology ISBN 9780021341740

Wonders California Reading and Writing Workshop ISBN 9780021331710